PRINCIPALS MESSAGE

What a busy week we have had. The children had a great time with Jed teaching them some AFL skills. The school is paying for Jed to deliver a 3 week program for the school which will run for 2 more Fridays.

Thank you to everyone who was able to support Jeans for Genes. We were able to raise $52.00 for a very worthy cause.

Our students were able to help out the Shire Council with the painting of the banners for the council open day. Please note Holley Johnson’s beautiful pencil and water colour of Thunderbolt’s Rock for which she was awarded a gift voucher and certificate.

Once again we were asked to help out with a community event when the Regional Red Cross meeting held at McCrossin’s Mill needed some items for entertainment. I was extremely proud of our students who sang beautifully.

ALL WELCOME
Mrs Thornton found some great new things for us to play with in the playground!!

Karen, the Ranger from Uralla Shire Council, came to the school last week so our students could assist her in painting a banner that was used at the Uralla Shire Council Open Day last Friday. As you can see, everyone enjoyed getting involved.
LOOK WHAT’S BEEN HAPPENING IN UPPER DIVISION

AFL Fun

Last Friday we had an AFL coach come out and teach us a little bit about AFL skills. The coach’s name was Jed and he will be back out this Friday and next Friday. He taught us how to kick to another player directly and we also learned how to catch a football properly.

From Jacob Cross, Toby Endacott, Emma Page and Tara Vickery

A group of our students travelled into McCrossins Mill on Tuesday to perform at the Red Cross Zone Conference. They were very well received by the audience.

We are proud to announce that our very own Holley Johnson won the Uralla Shire Council Primary Schools Art Competition with her entry of this painting of Thunderbolts Rock. Congratulations Holley. Here she is receiving her award from the Mayor, Mr Michael Pearce.
Single Income Family Supplement

The Single Income Family Supplement will provide assistance of up to $300 a year for families with a main income earner who earns between $68,000 and $150,000. This supplement recognises that, unlike dual income families at similar household income levels, single income families would receive little or no assistance through tax changes.

Customers who receive Family Tax Benefit will automatically be assessed for Single Income Family Supplement eligibility.

Customers who do not receive Family Tax Benefit, but who have a Single Income Family Supplement qualifying child in their care need to submit a claim form annually and lodge an income tax return within 12 months after the end of the financial year in order to be assessed for payment each year.

Basic conditions of eligibility

Single Income Family Supplement can be paid to a parent or guardian. To be eligible the claimant must:
- have a qualifying child in their care (see qualifying child information below), and
- meet residential requirements (as described under Family Tax Benefit Part A eligibility).

Qualifying child

A Single Income Family Supplement qualifying child is an FTB child (see FTB child definition under Family Tax Benefit Part A eligibility).

A Single Income Family Supplement qualifying child also includes a child who would be an FTB child except that the child (or someone on the child’s behalf) is receiving an “at home” rate of one of the following payments:
- Disability Support Pension
- Youth Allowance
- Special Benefit
- ABSTUDY living allowance, or
- An education allowance under the Veterans’ Children Education Scheme or the Military Rehabilitation and Compensation Act Education and Training Scheme.

Income test

- The Single Income Family Supplement will be paid to individuals where the main income earner has a taxable income of between $68,000 and $150,000.
- If there is a secondary earner in the family, their income needs to be below $18,000.
- The income test is based on a financial year income.

Basic rate
- Up to $300 (depending on income).

Low Income Supplement / Low Income Family Supplement

The Low Income Supplement/Low Income Family Supplement is a payment of $300 for people in low income households to assist with household expenses including energy costs. The Low Income Family Supplement is an administrative name for the Low Income Supplement as it applies to Family Tax Benefit recipients and it is paid to one member of a couple, if eligible.

Claims for the Low Income Supplement and the Low Income Family Supplement must be made annually to receive payment each year.

For the purpose of the Low Income Supplement and the Low Income Family Supplement, assessments of tax and income requirements are made against the previous financial year to the one you are claiming the supplement in. For claims submitted in the 2015–16 financial year, the assessment year is the 2014–15 financial year.

Basic conditions of eligibility

- Adjusted taxable income for the previous financial year was below:
  - $30,000 for a single person without a dependent child
  - $45,000 for couples without a dependent child
  - $60,000 for a single person or a couple with a dependent child.
- Claimant was either not required to pay tax in the previous financial year or had a tax liability of less than $300 for the year.
- There must have been 13 weeks or more in the previous financial year in which the claimant did not receive a pension, benefit or other government payment that attracts the Energy Supplement (see Energy Supplement amounts for the full list of government payments that attract Energy Supplement).
- For the Low Income Family Supplement this does not include Energy Supplement on Family Tax Benefit amounts.
- A person is not entitled to the Low Income Family Supplement if they or their partner (if applicable) have received a Low Income Supplement.
- A person satisfies the tax requirement for the income year if the person’s accepted taxable income for the income year is:
  - less than $18,000, or
  - $18,000 or more but is less than the person’s LIS threshold amount.

Residence requirements

- Must be an Australian resident or special category visa holder residing in Australia.
- Must have been in Australia for at least 39 weeks of the previous financial year.
- Must have been in Australia for at least 46 weeks for claims in relation to financial year 2013–14 and onwards.
- Must not have been subject to a newly arrived resident’s waiting period at any time during the financial year.

Basic rate
- $300 a year.
